- To assist in conducting daily check of equipment for safety, cleanliness, and good repair
- To assist in making (or filing for) equipment repairs
- To teach and monitor proper use of equipment and mountain board riding techniques
- To teach campers to do simple mountain board inspections/repairs

- To provide opportunities for campers to process and learn from their experience
- To assist in keeping records on all participants and to help them build confidence and gain skills
- To assist in conducting initial and end-of-season inventory, storing, and keeping equipment in good condition
- To assist in award recognition and participation certificates to campers, when earned
- To fulfill the specific responsibilities of General Counselor
- To assist in evaluating the current season and make recommendations for equipment, supplies, and the program for the following season
- These are not the only duties to be performed. Some duties may be reassigned and other duties may be assigned as required

Essential Functions:

- Cognitive and communication abilities to plan and conduct group and individual activities to achieve camp goals
- Ability to observe camper behavior, assess its appropriateness, enforce appropriate safety regulations and emergency procedures, and apply appropriate behavior-management techniques
- Ability to inspect equipment for safety, cleanliness, and good repair, and to effect (or file for) repairs
- Possess strength and endurance required to maintain constant supervision of campers and to teach the mountain boarding program
- Ability to carry out all duties at an elevation of at least 7,500 feet
- Possess physical ability to ride a mountain board, to move about the camp and mountain trails
- Visual and auditory ability to identify and respond to environmental and other hazards related to camper activities
- Physical ability to respond appropriately to situations requiring first aid and CPR, to assist campers in emergency situations (fire, evacuation, illness, injury and rescue), and to communicate via radio and telephone to summon help
